Missions Emphasis - Gorgie: Sam and Rachel Wilkins

Abner Creek,

I've never wrote a letter before so thought I'd start it like Paul did...

Sam, a servant of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To God's holy people in Abner creek, what's up. I think Paul does it better but anyway, what's up Abner! I wanted to write to you all thanking you for your continued support of me, my family and the work we are doing in Scotland. As most of you know we are planting a church in a scheme called Gorgie in Edinburgh Scotland. Work on the building will be starting soon and the gospel is already taking root here. We are sharing the gospel, we are in the local schools, we are meeting people with the bible, my wife Rachel is meeting with local young mums and our son Asher has been great at helping us to build connections with local families. Please pray for people to hear the gospel and be saved here in Gorgie. Pray that God would give us as a family all we need to plant a gospel preaching church that would still be smashing it for Jesus in a hundred years time. We could not do the work we are doing without you. Your recent financial gift was extremely generous. Thank you. Keep fighting the good fight y'all,

Sam, Rachel and Asher Wilkins
